

DINWIDDIE VOTES FOR GOOD ROADS

By Overwhelming Majority
County Decides to Issue
Bonds.

VERY LITTLE OPPOSITION

With Three Precincts Missing, Result Is More Than Ten to One.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., February 3.—Dinwiddie county voted overwhelmingly for good roads to-day. The question was whether or not the county should issue bonds to the amount of $100,000 for the permanent improvement of the main public roads, and the vote in favor of the issue was over ten to one. The total vote of the county, with three small precincts to hear from, which will not materially change the figures, was: For bond issue, 510 against 49.

Everyone of the four districts and every precinct, as far as reported, gave a majority for the issue. The vote was larger than was expected. Great credit is given Senator Lawler for the good work he has done for road improvement in Dinwiddie, and the almost unanimous vote given by the people of the county in response thereto makes him a happy man.

There are about 100 miles of main roads in Dinwiddie, some of which pass through each district, and the proceeds of the bonds will be apportioned to each according to its road mileage, calculated on the basis of improvement at $1,000 per mile.

Following is the vote, with three precincts missing:

Romantic District—Court House Precinct, 50 for, 9 against; Rocky Run, 54 for, 2 against; Monks Neck, 31 for, 4 against; Reame, 7 for, 1 against.

Darville District—Darville Precinct, 33 for, 3 against; Westboro, 5 for, 1 against; White Oak, 24 for, 3 against; Oakgrove, 27 for, none against.

Namaine District—Church Road, 67 for, 5 against; Sutherland, 199 for, none against; New Hope, 50 for, 1 against.

Sapony District—Brookland, 66 for, 1 against.

SHOT PROVES FATAL

No Cause Yet Discovered for Young Man's Suicide.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW CHURCH, VA., February 3.—Sylvester E. Purnell, the young man who came here from Snow Hill, Md., six months ago and entered in business with J. S. Gordy & Brothers, lumber dealers at Painter, Va., and attempted suicide at his boarding house yesterday afternoon, died at 10 o'clock last night.

He had reached the home of D. T. Justice, Wattsville, Va., early in the day and after eating his noon meal, retired to his room and a gunshot wound in his temple, dying on the floor. No statement could be obtained from the dying man, but it is believed that worry over financial matters caused him to end his life. His father, who was telephoned, arrived here this morning and will take charge of his remains.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH

Woman Weds, Not Knowing Her Brother Was Dead.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., February 3.—While the remains of Brakenham John W. Fisher, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, who was fatally injured Sunday, were being prepared here for burial yesterday afternoon, his sister, Miss Annie M. Fisher, of Staunton, was married to James F. Shank, of the same town, in Washington.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John T. Huddle. The bride, it is stated, had been visiting in Washington, and did not know her brother was dead.

New Officers of Hospital

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., February 3.—At the annual meeting of the Mary Washington Hospital Association the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. John E. Macdonald; First Vice-President, Miss Virginia Knox; Second Vice-President, Mrs. W. H. Richards; Secretary, Mrs. D. C. Bowman; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Sallie N. Gravatt; Treasurer, Mrs. Maurice Hirsch. The meeting was largely attended. The membership of the association is over 100. The treasurer's report showed the receipts of last year to be $2,214.61, and there is a balance in the treasury. Every room in the hospital is occupied with patients. A hot water heating plant will be installed at the hospital within the next few weeks.

Gate Falls on Boy

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WOODSTOCK, VA., February 3.—Lovell Jeffries, the six-year-old son of Mrs. E. M. Jeffries, was seriously hurt to-day by a heavy gate falling on him, cutting his head open and requiring a number of stitches to close the wound.

Has Old Contract

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., February 3.—Ex-Mayor Thomas P. Wallace has in his possession an old contract made in the year 1775 between his grandfather, the late John Wallace, of Stafford, and James Cook, for service for

At the Quality Shop

Man Proposes

The weather disposes. We bought early and generously, expecting a normal winter. It never came. That's why these goods must go at prices that make buying not only a pleasure, but a duty.

All the $15, $16 and $16.50 Suits and O'Coats are cut to $9.75

All the $18, $20 and $22.50 Suits and O'Coats are cut to $12.75

All the $25, $27.50 and $30 Suits and O'Coats are cut to $17.75

Jacobs & Levy

$2 and $2.50 Dress Shirts
now $1.15

A year. The terms are that Mr. Wallace was to give Cook the sum of 20 shillings, a coat, waistcoat, three shirts, one pair of breeches, one pair of shoes and stockings and one hat. Cook binds himself to serve Wallace faithfully, obey all his commands, keep his secrets, keep out of taverns and ale houses, break none of the Ten Commandments, and not leave the premises of Wallace without permission for a period of a year. The witnesses to the contract have descendants still living in Stafford—the Limericks and Burtons.

Negro on Rampage

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FAIRMONT, VA., February 3.—In the dead of night Rosser Watkins, colored, went to his home on the main street of Farmville, and with the words, "I am drunk," began a murderous assault upon his wife and another woman who happened to be in the house. One of the women was a freed slave, and probably fatal knife wounds, while the other is seriously injured. In the skirmish the table, on which was a burning lamp, was overturned, setting fire to the house. The fire department quickly got the flames under control. Watkins walked away, but was captured and lodged in jail.

New Industry for Norfolk

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—The announcement is made that S. E. Gill, of Pittsburgh, who has leased the Berkeley water front recently purchased by W. Harry Brown, a millionaire of Pittsburgh, will at once erect and equip a combination paper and sugar plant for the purpose of manufacturing fine grades of paper and sugar from the "horse-tooth" corn raised in abundance along the Dismal Swamp Canal. The crop from one large farm of over 7,000 acres is annually exported for that purpose, and is said to be annually worth at least $30,000.

The corn is cut early, while still sappy, for the use to which it is put. It is rolled, the sap being extracted and converted into sugar and the pulp being used for paper-making.

Fever Closes School

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WOODSTOCK, VA., February 3.—The prevalence of scarlet fever at St. Luke, several miles west of here, caused the county board of health to close for the time the public school there. The house of David Ryman, where most of the worst cases have been, will be burned by the county officials in the hope of staying further progress of the disease. The school has been open three times, but each time has only run for a few weeks, when a new outbreak would compel the authorities to close it again.

Becomes Insane

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
KLOVERLY, VA., February 3.—E. K. Lowery, of Minneapolis, Minn., became violently insane while on a visit to an uncle who lives on Jackson's River, this county, and was to-day taken to the Western State Hospital by Sheriff Augustus, after a night spent under guard in the county jail at Monterey. Lowery is apparently about fifty years old, and was born at Monterey, Va., and, prior to moving to the West, was an auctioneer in New York City. He had about $50 in his person when he came to Highland.

Killed by Falling Tree

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EXMORE, VA., February 3.—John Davis, fifteen years of age, was killed by the falling of a large tree, which he was assisting his father, Ishmael Davis, a farmer to cut down in a woods near the home at Belle Neck. The tree on which they were chopping fell without warning, and before the boy could get out of harm's way a limb of it struck the youth, knocking him to the ground. His head was smashed almost to a jelly. After removing his body from beneath the tree he was carried to his home, where he died.

CHAIN TIGHTENING ABOUT SAM HARDY

Link After Link of Damaging Evidence Being Forged
by State.

THE PROSECUTION SCORES

Shows Conclusively That Defendant Owned Gun Which Killed Jones.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., February 3.—The Ithaca Gun Company, of Ithaca, N. Y., to-day scored strongly for the State in the trial of Sam Hardy, alleged slayer of Thelma Grace Jones, near the latter's doorsteps, on the night of last October 25. The State's star witness of the entire trial was Paul Smith Livemore, treasurer of the gun company.

The witness read from the company's books, showing that it had sold to Charles Leonard Company, of Petersburg, twelve guns in June, 1907. One of the numbers was 146,444, the same that appears on the fore-end of an Ithaca gun found near the death scene early on the following morning. Frank M. Hobbs, vice-president of the Leonard Company, testified that his company sold one of the guns to Holland & Hardy, of Holland, Va., the latter being the defendant. Hardy ordered the gun for Sam Peterson, who later traded it back to Hardy for a rifle.

At the coroner's inquisition Hardy testified that he sold the gun a few days before the tragedy to a stranger from North Carolina, who, he said, came to his store and purchased it. The gun had not been seen since, so far as known.

Powerful Protest

The defense's lawyers entered a powerful protest against the admission of the gun evidence, on the ground that

HOME CURE FOR ECZEMA.

Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, Glycerine,
Etc., Used as a Simple Wash.

It really seems strange that so many people suffer year in and year out with eczema, when it is now no longer a secret that oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol, glycerine, etc., makes a wash that is bound to cure.

Old, obstinate cases, it is true, cannot be cured in a few days, but there is absolutely no sufferer from eczema who ever used this simple wash and did not find immediately that wonderfully soothing, calm, cool sensation that comes when the itch is taken away. Instantly upon applying a few drops of the wash the remedy takes effect, the itching is allayed. There is no need of experiment—the patient knows at once. Instead of trying to compound the oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., in the right proportions ourselves we are using a prescription which has been found the most effective. It is known as the D. D. D. Prescription, or Oil of Wintergreen Compound. It is made by the D. D. D. Co., of Chicago, and our long experience with this remedy has given us great confidence in its merits.

Owens & Minor Drug Co.

The entries in the records produced were not made by the witnesses themselves, who are officers, and incurred considerable resentment on the part of members of the committee by presuming that this was to be an unfavorable report, and charging that this would be because members were under the influence of the trust interests.

Senator Pharr, Senator Manning, Senator Means and others, took exception to this, with the result that Mr. McMichael retracted with apologies. J. O. W. Gravelly, of Rocky Mount, advocated the bill on the ground that it would certainly give some relief from conditions that are now intolerable. He contended that about all the money that is now being made by the tobacco industry is being hoarded by the tobacco companies, and that the bill would force them to pay it out.

There were a dozen or few farmers in the Rockingham delegation, and several of these told of the sentiment in their section in favor of the bill. One, Mr. Carter, told how hard it is for tobacco farmers to make ends meet. He developed later that he has fifteen children. Chairman Manning commented that his case might be exceptional, and the speaker replied that it had been his experience that parents got along about as well with fifteen as with one. At least he had found it that way.

The committee continued the hearing to Friday afternoon, when ex-Speaker E. J. Justice and others are to be heard on the bill.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 3.—D. M. Penick, president of the Strother Drug Company, one of the leading wholesale drug concerns of the South, narrowly escaped being crushed to death in an elevator in his establishment to-night. As it was, he escaped without broken bones, and it is hoped he has not sustained internal injuries.

He was showing the company's new building to a friend, and as the elevator passed the first floor, ascending, he thoughtlessly stepped in. As he did so he slipped and fell, his body being in such a position as to come in contact with the shaft, stopping the car. The straining of an employee's attention, and he quickly cut the current, and the building could have prevented Mr. Penick being killed.

DESERTER SURRENDERS.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HIS Romance Was Ended with Suicide Note.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., February 3.—Matthew W. Doss, a deserter from the United States Navy, was arrested to-day. He states that he deserted from the United States steamship Tacoma at Hampton Roads August 25, 1907, to marry Miss Lynch, of Norfolk. The couple went to Washington and lived there until January 14, 1909, when Mrs. Doss committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. After her death Doss went on a big spree, and came here several days ago. To-day he gave himself up to Officer Robinson, stating the circumstances of the desertion, and said he wanted to go back to his home in Nashville, but he could not do so until he had taken the punishment for desertion. He was locked up and the Navy Department notified. Officer Robinson will take Doss to the receiving ship Franklin at Portsmouth and receive the reward.

New Bank Building

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—The announcement is made that the Norfolk National Bank has decided to raise its present building on Main Street and erect a modern $75,000 banking house on the site. The present vault, situated in the rear, will be moved to the new building, and the old building will be used for the bank's offices. The new building will be a four-story structure, and will be completed within the next few months.

Late Ice Harvest

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONTEREY, VA., February 3.—A February ice harvest in this climate is regarded as a long one, and is predicted as vigorously as an overripe wheat harvest. The first ice of any consequence was formed Sunday and Monday when the mercury fell to 4 above zero, and the work of storing it is now in full blast.

Burn Is Burned

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WOODSTOCK, VA., February 3.—The barn of William Grandstaff, near Red Banks, was destroyed by fire this morning, together with a large amount of grain and hay, and all of the farming implements. The live stock was saved. Mr. Grandstaff was feeding, and the lantern he carried exploded.

Lives to Be a Hundred

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOLLADAY, VA., February 3.—Maria Johnson, an old servant of the Mansfield family, died here. She was about 100 years old. Her mother also lived to be nearly a hundred, and her father, Henry, lived to be considerably over a hundred.

FARMERS DEMAND ANTI-TRUST LAW

They Appear Before Committee and Appeal for Its Passage
by Legislature.

FEELING IS INTENSE

Members Aroused by Intimation That They Are Influenced by Corporation.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., February 3.—The Senate Judiciary Committee has a lively time this evening hearing advocates of the Lockhart bill for incorporating subsection "A" in the anti-trust law. It was a Rockingham county delegation, headed by ex-Senator Reuben Reid, C. O. McMichael, and others. Mr. Reid opened up with a characteristic fiery speech, demanding that the Democratic party stand by its platform and pass the bill. Democrats, he said, had denounced the Republicans, and rightly, too, for breaking faith in the matter of campaign promises, and now it is up to the Democrats to toe the mark and pass the subsection "A" bill. He did not believe the act would drive the American Tobacco Company from the State, and if it did conditions even then would be better than now. He charged that prices of tobacco ranged $5.80 on the hundred pounds lower now than when the trust was formed.

Aroused Resentment.
C. O. McMichael made a remarkable speech for a farmer, and incurred considerable resentment on the part of members of the committee by presuming that this was to be an unfavorable report, and charging that this would be because members were under the influence of the trust interests.

Senator Pharr, Senator Manning, Senator Means and others, took exception to this, with the result that Mr. McMichael retracted with apologies.

J. O. W. Gravelly, of Rocky Mount, advocated the bill on the ground that it would certainly give some relief from conditions that are now intolerable. He contended that about all the money that is now being made by the tobacco industry is being hoarded by the tobacco companies, and that the bill would force them to pay it out.

There were a dozen or few farmers in the Rockingham delegation, and several of these told of the sentiment in their section in favor of the bill. One, Mr. Carter, told how hard it is for tobacco farmers to make ends meet. He developed later that he has fifteen children. Chairman Manning commented that his case might be exceptional, and the speaker replied that it had been his experience that parents got along about as well with fifteen as with one. At least he had found it that way.

The committee continued the hearing to Friday afternoon, when ex-Speaker E. J. Justice and others are to be heard on the bill.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 3.—D. M. Penick, president of the Strother Drug Company, one of the leading wholesale drug concerns of the South, narrowly escaped being crushed to death in an elevator in his establishment to-night. As it was, he escaped without broken bones, and it is hoped he has not sustained internal injuries.

He was showing the company's new building to a friend, and as the elevator passed the first floor, ascending, he thoughtlessly stepped in. As he did so he slipped and fell, his body being in such a position as to come in contact with the shaft, stopping the car. The straining of an employee's attention, and he quickly cut the current, and the building could have prevented Mr. Penick being killed.

DESERTER SURRENDERS.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HIS Romance Was Ended with Suicide Note.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., February 3.—Matthew W. Doss, a deserter from the United States Navy, was arrested to-day. He states that he deserted from the United States steamship Tacoma at Hampton Roads August 25, 1907, to marry Miss Lynch, of Norfolk. The couple went to Washington and lived there until January 14, 1909, when Mrs. Doss committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. After her death Doss went on a big spree, and came here several days ago. To-day he gave himself up to Officer Robinson, stating the circumstances of the desertion, and said he wanted to go back to his home in Nashville, but he could not do so until he had taken the punishment for desertion. He was locked up and the Navy Department notified. Officer Robinson will take Doss to the receiving ship Franklin at Portsmouth and receive the reward.

New Bank Building

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—The announcement is made that the Norfolk National Bank has decided to raise its present building on Main Street and erect a modern $75,000 banking house on the site. The present vault, situated in the rear, will be moved to the new building, and the old building will be used for the bank's offices. The new building will be a four-story structure, and will be completed within the next few months.

Late Ice Harvest

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONTEREY, VA., February 3.—A February ice harvest in this climate is regarded as a long one, and is predicted as vigorously as an overripe wheat harvest. The first ice of any consequence was formed Sunday and Monday when the mercury fell to 4 above zero, and the work of storing it is now in full blast.

Burn Is Burned

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WOODSTOCK, VA., February 3.—The barn of William Grandstaff, near Red Banks, was destroyed by fire this morning, together with a large amount of grain and hay, and all of the farming implements. The live stock was saved. Mr. Grandstaff was feeding, and the lantern he carried exploded.

Lives to Be a Hundred

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOLLADAY, VA., February 3.—Maria Johnson, an old servant of the Mansfield family, died here. She was about 100 years old. Her mother also lived to be nearly a hundred, and her father, Henry, lived to be considerably over a hundred.

The New Silks for Spring

Now on Display.

27-INCH NEW SECO SILK, in reseda, old rose, taupe, and all the other wanted shades; per yard ..... 29c

FANOFY PONGEE FOULARD SILK, with grounds of navy, old rose, Copenhagen and reseda; per yard ..... 50c

SHOWERPROOF MESSALINE FOULARD SILKS, in stripes, dots and figures, in grounds of old rose, taupe, Copenhagen, brown, electric blue, Wistaria and all the new shades of green; per yard ..... 85c

PAIETTE DE SOIE SILK, 19 inches wide, in raspberry, brown, mais, Wistaria, Carthage, crocus, new Copenhagen, reseda and heliotrope; per yard... 75c

TAFFETA SILK, in pretty checks and stripes, in all the new color combinations; per yard ..... 49c

STUBBORN BLAZE VISITS MANASSAS

Two Buildings Destroyed, While
Newspaper Plant Is Badly
"Pied."

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MANASSAS, VA., February 3.—Fire which started at 8:45 o'clock to-night in the building owned and occupied by George W. Payne as a residence and general merchandise store, completely destroyed that building and a small building adjoining, belonging to the same owner and occupied by Charles Roy as a shoe-maker's shop. The office of the Manassas Journal, immediately adjoining the burned building, was threatened with destruction, but was finally saved by the quick action of the fire department. The office of the Journal, and the office was one of the best equipped in this section of the State, is piled in a promiscuous heap on an adjoining lot.

The building occupied by Mr. Payne was for a number of years used for hotel purposes, and was known as "The Payne Hotel." When the town was voted by Mr. Payne went into the mercantile business. The building was a large and old one, and made a stubborn fire. At one time a large portion of the business and residence section of the town was threatened, and Mayor Paff, of Alexandria, was wired to hold an engine in readiness to be sent here. The fire is under control, though still raging fiercely. Mr. Payne does not know how the fire started. When discovered the fire was raging in the second story of the building. The loss, which is about $7,000, is partially covered by insurance.

Child Burns to Death.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., February 3.—Virginia Brown, a colored child, seven years old, was so badly burned this morning that she died in a few hours. Her clothes caught fire from a stove.

Residences Change Hands.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—The announcement is made of the sale of the three brick residences No. 303, 305 and 307 Mowbray Arch, Ghenet, to Byrd & Baldwin Brothers, by John L. Roper, and the price paid was $27,500.

Residence Destroyed.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., February 3.—Fire last evening destroyed the residence of W. W. Preston, near Longview, Va. The loss is $1,500, with insurance of $1,000.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., February 3.—Not another word has been heard from the supposed wreck off Diamond Shoals, and the Onondaga, which is coaling here, will return to the scene and continue its search. So far the cutter's officers have been unable to find anything that would indicate the sinking of a steamer in that locality.

Nothing to Indicate Wreck.
(